Alexandria Hazette. Mosquitoes—Moths, etc.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 11, 18 5.

TO HARNESS THE POTOMAC .- The active business men and captalists of Williamsport are interested in the pro. ject of a wealthy syndicate to transmit the water-power at Dam No. 4, located are DRIVEN AWAY with non-poison in the Potomac river, above and below Williamsport, to that section, for the operation of an electric railway between Hagerstown and Williamsport, and for the use of factories at the former place. Members of the syndicate from Philadelphia visited the place about a year ago, and formulated a plan for the project. It was proposed to build a large park on an elevation at the northern end of the town, and overlooking the Potomac, and to erect a power-house in the west end to furnish power for the proposed electric railway, which would run parallel with the county turnpike between the two places, a distance of six miles. In the event of the consummation of the plan of the new system, the town would be furnished with electric ights and power to run several industries, which are now being talked of.
